This policy extends to all job applicants, employees, and induction program applicants and participants. Additionally, this policy includes decisions regarding admission, retention or completion, and decisions regarding the employment, retention or promotion of employees.

To comply with applicable laws ensuring equal employment opportunities to qualified individuals with a disability, Gateway Induction will make reasonable accommodations for the known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified individual with a disability who is an applicant or an employee unless undue hardship would result.

Any applicant or employee who requires an accommodation in order to perform the essential functions of the job should contact a Gateway Induction representative with day-to-day personnel responsibilities and request such an accommodation. The individual with the disability should specify what accommodation he or she needs to perform the job, or if unknown, what job duties the disability impairs. Gateway Induction then will conduct an investigation to identify the barriers that interfere with the equal opportunity of the applicant or employee to perform his or her job. Gateway Induction will identify possible accommodations, if any, that will help eliminate the limitation. If the accommodation is reasonable and will not impose an undue hardship, Gateway Induction will make the accommodation.
